dated 9th April 1906 which expressly prohibits the purchase of jail made articles by officers in charge of the jails as such purchases are likely to lead to abuse. From the statement it is seen that a number of jail officials have been allowed to make purchases on credit. It is a point for consideration if this practice can be held to be altogether free from objection & whether the wholesome prohibition contained in the G.O.x of 9th April 16 regarding jail officers in charge of jails should not be extended to the case of jail officials also.

3) The total amount due in respect of Credit Sales allowed subsequent to the order of 11th March 1910 is Rs 683.
